

Revision of previous decision
Bonanza 697.4 UNITED STATES GEOGRAPHIC BOARD
Goode
~~See work card~~

Adopted name }
 Thing named } Peak, altitude 9600 feet, Chelan County, Wash.

Approved
 Jan 3 1917
 Reconsidered October 3, 1917

Names	Authorities
North Star Mtn.	Stehekin Quadrangle U.S.G.S.
Mt. Goode	Suggested by Thomas G. Gerdine, Geog. U.S.G.S. in honor of Richard U. Goode, formerly a geographer in the U.S. Geol. Survey
Local usage Bonanza	"The peak 9,500 feet high at the head of Railroad Creek shown on the map as North Star Mountain was Originally known as Bonanza Mountain." May 18, 1917. E. H. McDaniels Forest Supervisor

Submitted by U. S. G. S.	Recommendation of Executive Committee Goode " "
Date December 22, 1916.
This card prepared by C. S. S.

"This mountain is a high conspicuous peak, with glaciers on all sides; located in the midst of a region of wonderful scenic beauty, where little or no development will take place in the near future and which will be visited by tourists and nature lovers who will perpetuate the name."

Thomas G. Gerdine.